The Reverend Nigel W. D. Mumford

Rev. Nigel Mumford, is the CEO of By His Wounds, a non-profit charity focusing on Christian Healing.

Nigel was born and educated in England.

He served for 6-1/2 years in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Commandos. His last 2 years as a Marine were spent as a drill instructor at the Commando Training School (CTCRM). Nigel has been involved in the Healing Ministry for over 24 years. He was director of a Healing Retreat Center in CT for eight years, before he moved to New York to be the director of the healing ministry for the Episcopal Diocese of Albany, at Christ the King Spiritual Life Center in Greenwich, NY (2004-2013).

His conviction to pray for healing came in 1989 when his sister, a ballet dancer with the Royal Ballet in London, was healed by God. This was a very dramatic healing from a disease called Dystonia, a neurological condition that curled her up into a fetal position and left her very close to death. Being a witness to her healing has had a profound effect on his life.

In 2008, Nigel, and two other retired military men, created The Welcome Home Initiative, a program of healing for veterans. This program invites men and women of our Armed Forces (from all wars), who have served in combat, to come 'free of charge' and be 'welcomed home'. The focus is on healing for post-traumatic stress and moral injury. More information on this program, as well as Nigel's books, can be found at the website: www.byhiswoundsministry.org
